LATE TELEGRAMS.

A QUESTION OF HOTEL CHITS
AN INTERESTING POINT.

London, April 27.—A large sum, £100,000, was collected on her maiden voyage from Sydney to San Francisco. The cargo had a cargo of coal and wood, and a quantity of Panhakshite. The crew, comprising 80 hands, were lost.

The steamer Star of New Zealand, 4240 tons, of the Tyne Line, and the Pontos, a German vessel, of the 2700 tons, came in collision during a foggy, breezy head on the south coast of Sicily. The Pontos was sunk, and the Star of New Zealand, which was outward bound, returned to Gravesend. Among her cargo was a quantity of dynamite, which it is being discharged.

The Pontos was loaded with cotton from South America; The Star of New Zealand is bound to Melbourne and Sydney.

Mr Rudyard Kipling.

April 4.—Mr Rudyard Kipling has greatly rejoiced in the "wonderful and world-wide sympathy and affection" expressed towards him during his late illness.

British Broken Hill S. M. Company.

April 5.—The report of the British Broken Hill S. M. Company discloses a profit of £7792 for the past half year. A dividend of 6d. per share for 1898, and an interim dividend of 6d. per share for the current year are recommended.

Russian University Students.

The St. Petersburg University, the Technological Institution, and the Academy of Mining have been closed owing to the students resenting the action of the authorities in refusing to grant an amnesty to the students of the Universities of Moscow and Kiev, who were recently dealt with for disorderly conduct.

Germany and Russia.

Going to further massing of Russian troops on the frontier the German Government will again submit to the Reichstag at the next session the proposal to increase the German infantry by 7000 men.

In the recent session the Reichstag rejected 7000 the proposal of General Von Gossler, Minister for War, for increasing the infantry by 10,271 men.

The Clerical Party, numbering 100, in a Chamber of 397 members, gave an amendment to the bill of the Ministry of War.

It has been fully ruled that arguing on questions is undesirable. Mr MacLean protested, but the Speaker remained immovable, and the Speaker's decision was confirmed.

The Ministry took a stand, however, and crossed over to below the gangway, the Opposition cheering frantically. From this position he made a fresh attempt, but finding the Speaker obstinate, stamped out of the House, threatening to leave the adjournment, and never returned.

An inspired paragraph dealing with the incident, in the Daily Telegraph, disclaims Mr MacLean's part any intention of desertion, representing him merely as a zealous member of the right of private members to question their Party Leaders. The actual effect of the affair, however, has been to strengthen the advocates of countervailing duties and discredit their opponents.

A Princess' Wedding.

The wedding of the Earl of Crown with Lady Margaret Primrose, daughter of the Earl of Rosse, took place at Westminster Abbey yesterday in the presence of the Prince of Wales, and Duke of Cambridge, other Royalists, and a brilliant assemblage of friends.

The function created extraordinary interest. The bride was dressed in white satin covered with diamonds, and the ten bridesmaids were decorated with pearls.

The Prince of Wales signed the register, and attended a subsequent party at 38, Park Lane, London.

Lord Rosebery's son, Mr. W. V. de Winton, was also present.
